

60 YEARS OF PIONEERING EXPEDITION CRUISING

Celebrate With a Special Anniversary Offer

In 1966, Lars-Eric Lindblad brought the first tourists to Antarctica—and since then, Lindblad Expeditions has taken thousands of curious guests to the far reaches of the Earth, from the wild isles of the Galápagos to the epic icescapes of the Arctic and beyond. Through our 20+-year collaboration with National Geographic, every expedition is driven by a deep commitment to forging meaningful connections between people and the planet.

In honour of our upcoming 60th anniversary, enjoy 60% reduced deposits for all 2026 voyages—for a limited time only.* This special offer is available for 60 days, from June 3 to August 1, 2025. Join us in celebrating this special milestone, and explore with the company that pioneered expedition cruising—and has been perfecting it ever since.
